Join Jamii International Outreach Ministries on its fourth annual safari-mission trip, tentatively scheduled for September 11th to 27th, 2008. During our 16-day tour, we will spend a few days at the Jamii-Kenya centers, interacting with the children and volunteers, helping to prepare and serve food at the feeding center, and participating in activities with the children including field trips to local tourist attractions. The trip will also feature a 6 hour safari drive to see one of Kenya's most spectacular game reserves at Nakuru National Park.

Tentative Itinerary:

Day 1: WASHINGTON, DC – NAIROBI

Depart on KLM Airways on Thursday, change planes in Amsterdam, and arrive in Nairobi on Friday evening.

Day 2: NAIROBI – KIBERA

After checking into the residence, resting, and eating lunch, we will drive to the Jamii center in Kibera for a welcoming ceremony at 1:00 pm. We will meet the orphans, participate in a short worship service, and will be entertained by the Jamii volunteers and children. We will assist in serving the children an early dinner before departing back to our residence at 5:00 pm to rest and eat dinner.

Day 3: NAIROBI – KIBERA

9:00 am – We will depart from the residence for Sunday morning services at the Jamii center (optional). After the services end, we will enjoy a picnic lunch with the children and the children will be divided into small groups for activities with tour participants. Tour participants will be assigned a small group of children and will be asked to prepare age-appropriate small group activities to enjoy with the children. The bus will depart at 5:00 pm in time to return to the residence for dinner.

Day 4: NAIROBI – NAKURU

8:00 am - From Nairobi, take a 2.5 hour drive to Nakuru. passing through the Great Rift Valley, and Lake Naivasha. We'll relax at the residence before lunch is served at 1:00 pm. At 3:00 pm we'll join the children in a welcome ceremony and entertainment by Jamii Nakuru volunteers and children. We will assist in serving the children an early dinner before departing back to our residence.

Day 5: NAKURU – GAME DRIVE

After breakfast, we will join the children and go for a game drive at Nakuru National Park. Lake Nakuru lies in the Great Rift Valley and is known world wide because it is a sanctuary for flamingoes. There are over a million flamingoes along its shores. A picnic lunch is served after the drive. Nakuru National Park offers wildlife in such variety and abundance that it is difficult to believe: over 450 species of animals have been recorded there. We will easily see lions, rhinos (white rhinos), hippos, crocodiles, giraffe, wildebeests, zebras, buffalo, warthogs, hyenas, jackals, wild dogs, leopards and many kinds of antelope.

Day 6: NAKURU

After breakfast we will visit Nakuru town and go shopping and sight seeing. After lunch we head back to our residence and start packing for Nairobi. In the afternoon we will meet with the volunteers and the children and have a gift exchange ceremony before we head to Nyahururu Jamii center.

Day 7: NYAHURURU

We'll arrive at the Jamii children's center in Nyahururu and have a welcome ceremony. After the ceremony we'll help serve the children dinner.

Day 8: NYAHURURU

After breakfast we'll take the kids on a field trip to Nyahururu town to the famous Thompson's Falls. This is a spectacular 260 foot waterfall that is a big tourist attraction. After visiting the falls we will have lunch before heading back to the center. Dinner will be served early and then we will have a campfire and fellowship.

Day 9: NYAHURURU

We will volunteer to work with the staff at the center on various projects.

Day 10: NYERI

After breakfast we will do some local hiking to the Abadare Range Mountains. Those that won't be able to go for the hike will go to Nyahururu and take a tour of the town. We'll leave in the afternoon for Nyeri where we will visit projects run by our sister organization the Lydia Watani Foundation.

Day 11: Embu

After breakfast we will have a scenic drive to Embu with stop-overs at Mea Tabere irrigation scheme, the famous Thagana River and Thika town before reaching Nairobi. Dinner will be served at the residence.

Day 12: NAIROBI

After breakfast we will have a day off to relax and go to the city or stay at home and regenerate. In the evening we go into the city for dinner.

Day 13: NAIROBI

During the morning you will be free to walk around Nairobi and shop. At 12:00 pm a bus will depart for an optional tour of Karen, where you will have the opportunity to tour the Karen
